

- the Network Code, then would be expected to put those recommendations to Class Representative Committee.

Freightliner to support their position. Network Rail then responded with more detail in December 2012 and work is on-going to resolve the issue.